The Courier.

Never have subscribers poured in on us in such a resistless flood. By every mail, from all directions, from all sections of Kentucky and the adjoining States, we are receiving long lists of names to be enrolled upon our subscription books—day by day they come, not by tens and fives, but by hundreds and thousands, and the cry is still, they come! It encourages us to increased exertions in behalf of the great principles of the "Constitution and the Equality of the States," for which we are battling: it speaks well for the zeal and the determination of our coadjutors in the good work. Let them come. We know nothing that can more promote the great ends we have in view than to send our MAMMOTH WEEKLY, filled with arguments, appeals, and valuable information for the million, broadcast throughout the land. Speeches by great statesmen, addresses by committees composed of eminent Democrats, old records, facts, figures, and the news of the day—these are but a part of the matter that goes to make up the contents of the WEEKLY COURIER; and armed with these, the humblest member of the Democratic party can successfully meet and repel the attacks of its enemies.

Then, let our friends everywhere—let true Democrats wherever found—let the friends of the Constitution and the Union in all the States of the Confederacy, aid in circulating the WEEKLY COURIER among the masses. It will contribute to our success in November—it will contribute to the triumph of our principles—it will contribute to the preservation of our free institutions—it will diffuse light and knowledge among the people. Circulate the documents—keep the voters informed—refute the calumnies of our enemies, and all will be well.

We will Carry the State in November.

We will carry Kentucky for BRECKINRIDGE and the Union in November. We must do it. We will do it. It cannot be done by supineness, by negligence, by carelessness or indifference. It can be done by earnest, determined, organized effort. We know such effort will be made. We know the Ron-hearted Democracy of the State are girding on their armor; and stung by the temporary triumph of their old foes at the recent election, and goaded to extraordinary zeal by the shouts of the allied victors, they will strike such blows in behalf of their noble standard bearers and their glorious cause as will cleave the shields in twain and crush in the helmets of their opponents, leaving them the conquered in the glorious struggle for the Equality of the States, the Constitution, and the Union.

From the North and the South, from the East and the West—from the Big Sandy to the Mississippi, and from the Ohio to the Tennessee—from every county and section of the State, we hear of the arousement of our friends, and get glad tidings of great joy. The right spirit is abroad—the spirit that knows nothing like fail—the spirit of an invincible and unconquerable host, determined on glorious victory. The defeat of MCCLARTY by a representative of the proscriptive principles of Know Nothingism, the recreancy of professed friends who swelled the numbers of Cowan adherents, the proposed shameless coalition of those who differ on the great principles of the canvass on the platform of the spoils—these have shown the Democracy of Kentucky the character of the opposition they have to encounter, and inspired them with the determination to meet it

> With banner, brand, and bow,
> As leader seeks his mortal foe.

Democrats of Kentucky! the responsibility is on you—the enemy is at your doors—you know what to do. You must go to work now. Don't underrate the strength of the opposition. Prepare to contest every inch of ground as though the fate of the country depended on it. Fight for each district, for each county, for each precinct, for every vote. Do your duty, fellow-Democrat, as though all depended on your zeal and on your influence in your neighborhood—do your duty to your party and your State, and a victory more glorious than any that ever perched on the standards of your party awaits you.

Mr. T. C. Kelly and his Card.

Mr. T. C. KELLY, of Covington, a gentleman of whose existence and antecedents the world was in blissful ignorance until recent events made known the one and threw some light on the other, received two or three hundred votes for Clerk of the Court of Appeals at the recent election. In publishing the returns of the votes for that office, under a misapprehension of the facts he was classed in the Courier as a Black Republican. When our attention was called to this, and we were informed of its incorrectness, we promptly corrected the error into which we had fallen. This was done in the following paragraph, in the Courier of Friday last:

A GRIEVOUS ERROR.—In classifying the vote of this State, we were misled in stating that Thos. C. Kelly, who received two hundred and ninety votes in Kenton and Campbell, was a Black Republican. We are advised by a friend that Mr. Kelly has always acted with the Democratic party—and that the votes cast for him were those of personal friends, who preferred to give their votes to him, although no candidate, rather than to any candidate in the field for Appellate Clerk. We make this correction, because it is but enough for a man in Kentucky to be a Black Republican, which no intelligent man will be, before he abhors their doctrines, as we are assured Mr. Kelly does.

With a knowledge of all these facts, our correction being before him, Mr. KELLY chose to get indignant, and published a card in the Democrat of yesterday, the only effect of which will be to convince the public who know the facts in the case, that whatever his political opinions may be, or may have been, he is neither a gentleman himself nor capable of appreciating gentlemanly bearing in others.

☞ The Courier's report of the Douglas Convention here said a certain number of counties were "responded for." The Douglasites stupidly or maliciously construe this into an admission that that number of counties were really represented. On the contrary, we do not believe that delegates from over half of the counties "responded" for were present.

If the Convention was really what it is claimed to have been, the publication of the names of the delegates will prove it. Why not give them to the public? Is it possible no list was kept? Was no roll called? Did not the report of the Committee on Credentials show who represented Carter county, and Fleming county, and the other counties?

But we have called for the names of the delegates in vain. They will never be given to the public. And why? If seven hundred, or three hundred, delegates had been present, does any one believe their names and residence would not have been blazoned to the world? The truth is, the Convention was pretty much of a "fizzle." It went do to let the Democracy see who undertook to speak for them on that occasion. The names of the delegates are, perhaps, in the breeches pockets of the Secretary—and they will stay there!

The Banner County.

Johnson has long been the banner Democratic county. More than one flag has been presented to the insurruptible Democracy of that county by their brethren of other parts of the State. Now as in times past they are true to them selves, their principles, and their country. And, well as they have done heretofore, they at the last election excelled themselves, when others were negligent, luke warm, or false. The official return show that County did not get one vote in the county; that BOULDIN and HOPKINS, combined, got but six votes, while MCCLARTY received five hundred and forty-eight. The Democratic candidate for Sheriff had no opposition, but they voted for him, giving him five hundred and forty-four votes, and for Appellate Judge, they gave PETERS five hundred and seventy-eight; and Simpson eighteen. Well done, gallant Johnson!

☞ The National Executive Committee have issued an address to the Democracy and people of the United States. It will appear soon in our columns.

An Efficient Douglas Organ.

The Louisville Democrat of yesterday says:

The Augusta Constitutionalist, one of the ablest and most consistent Democratic papers in the South, and the Atlanta Confederacy (edited by Dr. J. P. Hambleton, formerly of Virginia), are doing good service in the cause of Douglas and Johnson. The former paper declares, with the utmost confidence, that Mr. Breckinridge cannot carry the State.

The ATLANTA CONFEDERACY, says the Douglas organ in Kentucky, is "DOING GOOD SERVICE IN THE CAUSE OF DOUGLAS AND JOHNSON!" And to give emphasis to the announcement, the name of its editor is given in full, "Dr. J. P. HAMBLETON, formerly of Virginia." Do our readers know that "Dr. J. P. HAMBLETON, formerly of Virginia," is a professed and noisy disunionist? Do they know that his paper advocates a disruption of the confederacy if the compromise of 1850 be not repealed, if the law declaring the slave trade piracy be not repealed, or if LINCOLN be elected? But the Democrat says Dr. HAMBLETON and the CONFEDERACY are "doing good service in the cause of Douglas and Johnson!" That our friends may know exactly what the purposes of this efficient laborer in the cause of Douglas and Johnson are, we reproduce the prospectus of the CONFEDERACY—not the prospectus of a year ago—but the one which is in its columns of to-day:

We are now publishing, in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, a daily and weekly paper, called the SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY, the contents of which will be of the uncompromising Southern Rights Democratic faith.

We shall endeavor to make this paper, in all of its interests and bearings, what the NAME indicates. This is our unalterable determination, whether it suits the popular breeze or not.

1. We are for the union of the States, constitutionally administered, independent of corrupt influence, concession, or sectional treaties.

2. We are, under existing circumstances, and from our present policy and position in the Union, to say nothing of the tendency of things, for the South, independent, unshackled, and untrammelled in all respects.

3. We are for a perpetuation of the Union, provided the neutrality laws, the compromise measures of 1850, and subsequent compromises are repealed.

4. We are for the repeal of the restrictions upon the African slave trade, regardless of its construed impolicy by Northern fanatics and Southern submissionists.

5. We regard the foregoing restrictions as unwarranted by the Constitution, depriviating, degrading, insulting, and grievously sectional in legislation to the South, and therefore intense upon the statute book has tended not only to dwarf and impoverish one section and build up another, but that it has encouraged subserviency and demagogueism in our midst, with their concomitant evils incident in the moral degeneracy of a proud and noble people. If these restrictions and compromises can be wiped from the statute book, and the Government administered in its original purity, with a strict regard to economy and retrenchment, we hope to see the Union preserved; in default of which, we are emphatically and unequivocally for DISUNION.

6. We are for free trade and direct taxation, as the proper and constitutional mode of collecting revenue and encouraging a spirit of friendship and amity.

7. We are opposed to the acquisition of any more territory until the African slave trade is reopened, and the immediate sale and enslavery of all free negroes that are found within the limits of the Southern States, after a specified time to emigrate.

8. THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY shall not be in the interests of any party or combination, further than what we conceive to be the rights and privileges of an independent people.

9. We shall speak of measures and measures at all times, regardless of consequences, as we may think their positions justify.

10. We shall use every exertion to make THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY one of the best and most reliable Political and Commercial papers in the South. We intend to pay especial attention to the latest news items, market reports, monetary, and commercial, both domestic and foreign.

How do those who have been frightened off from the support of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE by absurd clamors about the disunionism of YANCEY, or of RHETT, or of somebody else of whom they never before heard, like this programme of a paper that is "doing good service in the cause of DOUGLAS and JOHNSON?" But we desire to call attention to still another extract from this efficient DOUGLAS and JOHNSON organ of a recent date. Read, Douglas men, and learn who are supporting DOUGLAS in Georgia! Read, Bell men, and learn with whom you are asked to fuse! Read, everybody, and remember, that the Louisville Democrat says the part of which the above is the prospectus, and from which the following is taken, is doing "good service in the cause of DOUGLAS and JOHNSON":

We answer this interrogatory by simply stating THAT THE SOUTH WILL NEVER PERMIT ABRAHAM LINCOLN TO BE INAUGURATED PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. THIS IS A SETTLED AND SEALED FACT. IT IS THE DETERMINATION OF ALL PARTIES AT THE SOUTH, AND LET THE CONSEQUENCES BE WHAT THEY MAY—WHETHER THE POTOMAC IS CRIMSONED IN HUMAN GORE, AND PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE IS PAVED TEN FATHOMS IN DEPTH WITH MANGLED BODIES, OR WHETHER THE LAST VESTIGE OF LIBERTY IS SWEPT FROM THE FACE OF THE AMERICAN CONTINENT, THE SOUTH, THE LOYAL SOUTH, THE CONSTITUTIONAL SOUTH, WILL NEVER SUBMIT TO SUCH HUMILIATION AND DEGRADATION AS THE INAUGURATION OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Mr. Douglas and the Southern Opposition.

The Louisville Journal says:

There is one other point to be considered in this connection. The New York Times has had a very intelligent letter-writer following Mr. Douglas in his New England tour, and this correspondent's views as to the course of Mr. Douglas are interesting and important. He seems to consider the election of Lincoln, and affirms that Mr. Douglas will after that event head the opposition to the disunion movement of the South.

In other words, it is the understanding, that Mr. DOUGLAS, having no hope of reaching the Presidency now, is running solely for the purpose of defeating Mr. BRECKINRIDGE, between whom and LINCOLN the contest lies; and that if he thus secures the election of the Black Republican, he will then place himself, not in the front ranks of the Kentucky Democracy, and of the Virginia Democracy, and of the Democracy everywhere, but at the head of the Southern opposition—at the head of the old enemy to Democracy—at the head of those who broke up the Whig party and built up on its ruins the Know Nothing organization, who then destroyed the work of their own hands and rallied under the flag of "Opposition," and who have abandoned that to fight under the colors of a still more recent formation—at the head of men who have been everything by turns and nothing long, but all the time against the Democracy! And this is what Mr. DOUGLAS, having first sided, in the garb of Democracy, to elect LINCOLN, is expected to do.

And having thus given its understanding of Mr. DOUGLAS' intentions, the Journal continues in a pathetic appeal to him to come over now and aid in defeating the "disunion movement," which, in the slang of DOUGLAS & Co., refers to the patriotic struggle which the National Democracy are making for the Constitution and the Union. It adds:

Why defer that opposition until the Republicans have secured the Government? Why scotch the snake when we can kill it? There will be no disunion movement in the South if Bell and Everett are elected, but it will be to the interest of the Southern Democracy to keep the sectional questions constantly agitated, in the hope to bring the benefit of the reaction in 1864, should Lincoln be elected.

And it concludes with a plea for a fusion of the Squatters and Union Savers.

All these things plead eloquently to the South and to the conservative North in favor of Union upon the best basis to defeat the hopes of the Republican, and prevent the election of Lincoln by the sectional vote of the North.

RELICS OF AN OLD SOLDIER.—We noticed in our paper last week, the death of Capt. Stewart W. Megowan. As we then stated, he had been a brave soldier, having figured creditably in several celebrated battles. He retained to the last some mementoes of the bloody conflicts in which he had participated, that were found in his possession at the time of his death. A portion of these relics were presented by his son-in-law, Lieutenant J. B. Megowan, a few days since, to the Lexington Rifles; and, at the last meeting of the Lexington Chasseurs, that popular company received from the same source, the hatchet Capt. Megowan had upon his person at the battle of the Thames, in 1813, and at the battle of New Orleans, in 1815. Also a musket, used in Capt. Hart's infantry company, in 1812. These cherished mementoes of the gallant old soldier, to which he so fondly clung through many a year, have been placed in the right hands to be appreciated and taken care of. GROVER & BAKER'S NOISELESS FAMILY SEWING MACHINES,

NEW YORK, 495 BROADWAY, 1858.

THE Undersigned, Ministers and Laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, having purchased and used in our families "GROVER & BAKER'S CELEBRATED FAMILY SEWING MACHINE," take pleasure in recommending it as an instrument highly combining the essentials of a good machine. Its beautiful simplicity, ease of management, and the strength and elasticity of its stitch, unite to render it, in our opinion, a Machine unsurpassed by any in the market, and one which we feel confident will give satisfaction to all using purchase and use it.

GILBERT MOUNTAIN HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Which has been known only in Central America where it has been used with entire success for half a century. The remarkable virtues of this preparation for recuperating and restoring the hair to bald heads, restoring it to its original color, removing the dandruff and cutaneous affection of the head, and giving a healthy tone to the scalp. For the toilet table there is nothing its equal, it having been thoroughly tested in this country by the proprietor the past two years before he could be induced to bring it before the public, and until he was thoroughly satisfied of its virtues. Abundant certificates of the highest character can be shown testifying to its unequalled virtues. It is made of roots, and is, therefore, perfectly harmless in its composition, containing no oil. When in use all other preparations should be laid aside, especially any that contain substances of a oily nature. Wholesale and retail by A. G. ☞ After an experience of one year in putting up Vulcanite Base, Messrs. FITLE & FULTON are more fully prepared to indorse the claims of superiority to everything else as a base for Artificial Teeth. When they introduced it in Louisville they advertised it as follows: That it was one-half lighter than metal, more cleanly, and that they were more certain of getting a perfect fit of the mouth. They now go further, and say that it is much stronger than gold or metal, and less liable to be injured by accident, while the low price brings it within the reach of all. Believing that their efforts to give the best work at small profits will be appreciated, they have determined on a reduction of their prices. To substantiate the above they pledge themselves to replace with gold, without extra charge, any set on Vulcanite that fails in any one particular as set forth above. They still put up the gold work for those who desire it.

MCLEAN'S CORDIAL.—As may be seen, we insert this week the advertisement of McLean's Cordial, &c.

It is very well known we are not particularly favorable to patent medicines, and, as a general thing, eschew the whole of them with but little ceremony, and with these sentiments we declined inserting this advertisement until we knew what were the ingredients of the medicine, and how compounded. This we have learned, by doing, to-day, that the ingredients are good, and the compound judiciously made, we recommend it as a mixture worthy of public confidence.

The above is from the St. Louis Christian Advocate, edited by the renowned Rev. Dr. McAnally, which speaks volumes in favor of McLean's Cordial. We say to all, try it. See the advertisement in another column. aug23 dtf

IRON AMALGAM BELLS.

WE take pleasure in directing the attention of those interested to the unrivaled merits of our cheap and superior Church, School, Steamboat and Farm Bells, which, it will be observed, are offered at about one-third as much as is charged for those of brass or bell metal composition, and is less than half the price of steel.

These bells are manufactured from an alloy of iron containing a liberal proportion of iron, and which, while it is much cheaper than the composition heretofore employed for the same purpose, yields a greater degree of strength, durability, and humanity from the figures during frost, weather, equal, if not superior, to the latter.

Farm, School, Hotel and Shop Bells,

THE RIVER was falling very fast yesterday, with only four feet five inches water in the canal by the mark in the evening. During the previous 24 hours it had receded six inches at the head of the falls, and near eighteen inches at Portland. The weather was warm, and cloudy all day, but not a drop of rain fell.

At Cincinnati, at noon yesterday, the river was falling fast, and at Pittsburg it was steadily receding, with four and a half feet water in the channel. The steam begins to look like low water, but the moon will not set rain this quarter, and another rise may be looked for.

The arrivals from below yesterday report the river in the same fair stage, with fully five feet water at Cumberland, the smallest point.

The Tennessee, as we stated yesterday, is falling fast, with a reported foot in the river. That will improve the stage of water in the Lower Mississippi.

The John Tompkins and Chancellor arrived at Cairo Tuesday, the latter with a good trip.

By dispatch from Capt. Bunce, from Cairo, we learn that the steam tender re-shipped her freight on the Arkansa, and that she would return to Pitts., and leave this port on Saturday, her regular day.

REPORT OF THE COLLISION OF THE SAM. P. HIBBARD AND CHANCELLOR.—Annexed is the official report of the inspectors of the district, of the late collision of the Hibbard and Chancellor, just below Portland, by which the former was sunk. It, as the inspectors justly remark, was an unusual case, and we think the decision reflects honor to them in the display of the best feelings of the head and heart, in the face of the fact that a boat had been lost by the occurrence.

The pilots, Capt. Bentley and Ben Shively, we know personally, and know them both to be prudent, skillful and humane. The same can be truly said of Capt. Malbourn, of the Chancellor, and we fully concur in the report that the disaster was unavoidable, and that no blame can be attached to the officers of either boat.

The Collision Case of the Chancellor and S. P. Hibbard—Report of the Inspectors.

LOUISVILLE, August 22d, 1860.

W. N. HARDESTY, Esq., Surveyor of Customs.

SIR: The following report of the late collision case of the steamers Chancellor and S. P. Hibbard, on our present to the examination and view of the case from any other collision case examined into by us, may excite surprise in the mind of some.

We can surprise, because in all the collision cases heretofore examined into, we have fallen invariably into adopting such principles as the law imposes upon one or other of the parties implicated therein, and sometimes upon both. Whereas in this case, after patiently examining many witnesses from both boats, who were cognizant of all the facts and circumstances bearing upon the case, and from the unparalleled and unique combination of circumstances that preceded, and was, in our opinion, mainly the cause of the collision, arrived at the conclusion that in justice to penalty should attach to the pilots of either boat, but should be classed among the unavoidable accidents and dangers of the river.

It seems that, on the morning of the 28th of July last, at about two o'clock, the Chancellor was found by when near West Louisville, about one and a half miles below New Albany, and in sight of the lights in New Albany, and while running along in our ordinary gait, and rather nearer the Kentucky shore, which is the usual and proper channel to be used at such a stage of water as then was, six or seven and a half feet in the river, and with another steamer directly ahead of her, also bound up, viz: the John Tompkins, having received a point about one hundred yards below the mouth of Falling Run, Indiana side, the pilot of the Chancellor states that she heard two sounds of a steam whistle as the saying for her to land. That he answered with one sound, and immediately stopped his engine, seeing no reason for not answering the signal as given, that the boats were too near together for the boat to attempt to go to the left of the ascending boat, as the current on that side was much better out in the river than was the Chancellor. The statement of the pilot of the Chancellor, as well as the other witnesses of the Hibbard, goes to show that directly after the Hibbard had left New Albany, and had but cleverly straightened down, and had gotten nearly across the bar and down into near the mouth of Silver Creek, which is the usual and proper channel for boats at such a stage of water as then was, at this time, a crash of steam escaping with a very loud sound, and lie, pilot of the Hibbard, supposed at first sight that the Hibbard had blown up, rung the bell at once to stop her, and at the same moment of time gave two sounds of his steam whistle as a signal that he intended keeping the boat. The line attached to the lever of the Hibbard's safety valve having parted, letting the weights fall, caused the noise he supposed an explosion; when, undoubtedly in the ring his backing bell to back the engines a first, a second, and a third time, and yet the engines were not backed, nor were they backed until the collision took place and the damage was done. The reason for not backing them was, as appears by the statement of the engineer, that he had to get on the boilers to secure the line, and was not at his post at the time the bell rung, nor did he hear the bell. The boat carried but a first and second engineer, and was stopped by the watchman on the hurricane deck, who was also on hand at the hoisting of the boat.

☞ The Diligent is the regular canal packet for Leavenworth to-day. She starts from the Portland wharf, making the trip through in daylight.

FOR MEMPHIS AT NOON TO-DAY.—After we left the river last night, Capt. Archer found it necessary to delay the Mariner's departure until 12 o'clock to-day, from the city wharf, to have daylight to get his stock on board. The Mariner will receive freight up to noon and no longer, as she will go at the hour.

RIVER TO MEMPHIS PACKET.—The staunch, light draught, coal-burning packet John Tompkins starts direct to Cairo and Memphis this evening. She is at the city wharf, and Capt. Berkshire, and the clerk, Capt. Russell, will be found prompt and courteous.

☞ Thanks to John Zumbro, clerk at Moorhead & Co's, for attentions.

☞ The Venango was advertised to leave Pittsburg Monday evening for this port.

☞ The new ferry boat for New Albany, the Ben South, laid up steam yesterday, and makes trial trips on.

☞ The De Soto, Capt. H. H. Beard's fine new boat for the Red river trade, is to be launched on Saturday next from the New Albany ship yard.

☞ We see by letter to A. J. Kriel & Co., of this city, that Capt. Anwalt has seen enough par chased the Bay City. As he had no connection whatever with the infamous Capt. Miller, we suppose the public will not visit upon the boat the sins of the man. The boat was sold cheap for barely the worth of the engines, and her present owner contemplates building a new boat.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, }
WEDNESDAY EVENING, August 22, 1860. }

The market continues active with a large demand for Breadstuffs, Provisions and Tobacco, and the transactions, as will be seen by our summary annexed, have been heavy. The Provision market has been very active, and Bacon has again advanced, the market closing buoyant at the advance price. The market for Hogs for packing has been very keen, with an active competition among pork packers, and we learn that large purchases have been made in Shelby county at an advance, but the terms of the sales have not been made public. A lot of 5,000 head of Kentucky Hogs was taken by a city packer, to be called for any time between the 1st and 25th of December delivered at the railroad station in Henry county at $5 gross. Another lot of 1,200 Indiana Hogs was taken by a packer at $4 70 gross, to be delivered on the railroad at Jeffersonville, free of charge. Another lot of 2,000 Kentucky Hogs was taken by a city packer at $5 gross, to be delivered at the railroad in Shelby county. In addition we hear that a large lot in Shelby county Hogs had been sold to Louisville parties, but we could learn no particulars. It is reported that most of the Hogs in Jefferson, Shelby, Henry and Oldham counties have already been purchased at $5 gross. This is a good price, which, for good heavy Hogs, packers are willing to pay, and for all Hogs delivered at a reasonable point in Kentucky they will pay this price, and for Indiana Hogs they are offering $4 50 gross, for early delivery.

The demand for Money has been heavier, consequent upon the large sales of Produce and Provisions, as well as the large contracts for Hogs, on which Money is often needed by the packers. This has caused rather a stringency in the market, but most of the good paper offered was discounted, and but little difficulty on experienced in obtaining loans on first class paper. The Exchange market was quiet at ¼ premium on New York and ¼@¾ on New Orleans.

The weather has undergone several changes, and during the week we have had two refreshing showers, which will prove a great benefit to the growing corn crop. The River is at a good stage, but slowly falling.

Our quotations apply to wholesale prices, unless the contrary is specified. A small advance is asked on these quotations for small lots.

ALCOHOL—Prices have declined, with sales from the manufacturers at 26¢ for 76@ cent., 42¢ for 92 @ cent., 44¢ for 95@ cent., and 45¢ for 98@ cent.

BAGGING AND ROPE—The demand for Bagging and Rope has been fair, but not as heavy as the previous three or four weeks. The sales were 65 pieces power loom Bagging at 15¼@, 215 pieces hand loom at 14@15; 420 coils machine Rope at 8¢, and 50 pieces hemp Bagging at 7½¢. Sales of 11,500 lbs Twine at 18½¢. Sales to-day of 60 pieces Hunt's machine Bagging at 15½¢; 173 pieces hand at 14½¢; 100 coils machine Rope at 8¢.

BEANS—Are scarce, and we quote White at 75¢@ $1 25 ₱ bushel.

BRANS, MEAL, &c—Feed-stuffs have declined, with sales of 12 tons Bran from store at $13@$16; 15 tons Shorts at $15; 5 tons Shipstuff at $18. We quote Middlings at $20@25. Meal is firm at 57½@60

CANDLES AND SOAP—There is no change, and we quote Star at 19¢ for 16 ounce. Small sales of Tallow Candles at 13¢@14½¢. We quote Palm Soap at 6¢, German at 5½@5¾, and No. 1 do at $1 60@2 50 ₱ box, according to weight.

COTTON AND COTTON YARNS—We quote good Middling Tennessee and Alabama at 10¾@11½¢. Inferior is quoted at 8¾@9½¢. Pittsburg and Maysville Cotton Yarns sell in large lots at 7¾, 8½, 9½, and 10¾ ₱ dozen, on 4 months' time, for numbers 500, 600, and 500. In small lots to the country, an advance of ½¢ is required.

CHEESE—Cheese has been arriving slowly, and the market has been dull, with no demand. We have heard of no transactions, and continue to quote at 9@9½¢ for prime W. R.

COAL—We have been no receipts of Coal during the week. The stock on hand is ample to supply the demand. We quote Pittsburg in barges about at 8½@9¢, and in small lots, delivered, at 12½¢.

FEATHERS—There has been a good demand for Feathers, and prices had an upward tendency, with sales to shipping at 41.

FISH—The market is quiet, and we quote No. 1, large Mackerel, at $18 50 ₱ barrel, and $9 75@$10 for half bbls. No. 2 mackerel, at $11 for bbls and $5 75 for half bbls. No. 3, small, are selling at $8 75 ₱ bbl. We quote White Fish at $1 50@$1 75 for half barrels.

FRUIT—In Fruit there is but little doing, and we quote Raisins at $1 65 for DL R., and $2 90 for Layer, in bunches; half and quarter boxes are sold in proportion. Oranges at $7@$9 75; Lemons, in lots at $11@$12 ₱ box; Figs at 19@21½¢ ₱ lb; Dates 8¢.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—There has been a heavy southern demand for Flour and Grain during the week, and the shipments over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad have been so large that they were compelled to refuse freight, and they will not receive any more until Saturday. The market for the finer grades of Flour has been firmer, but no advance has been established in prices, and it is the general impression among dealers and millers that prices will remain as they are for some time. The sales embrace 1,425 bbls extra new Wheat Flour at $5 25@$5 75, and 200 bbls Fancy Family brands at prices ranging from $6 50@$6 90. The receipts of Wheat have been heavier than any previous week during the season, and the transactions have amounted to 18,740 bushels prime red and white, taken by city dealers and millers at $1 02@$1 10; 420 bushels choice white, at $1 12; 1,200 bushels new wheat Flour at $4 50@$5 25
